SOUTH WATERFORD

Kimball-Sanborn Wedding—Fletcher In Auto Accident—Mrs. Perry Gone to Massachusetts—Enjoyed Supper On Beach.

A wedding of much interest to Waterford people, was that of Bessie Kimball and Charles Dunham in South Waterford, which was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Blon H. Pike. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Charles A. Kimball, and the double ring service was used. The Rev. A. C. Townsend of Waterford, officiating.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride and her father, led by the matron of honor, entered the living room and were met by the groom and best man. The bridal couple and attendants stood beneath a white cloth in an arch of red and white poles during the ceremony.

The matron of honor was Mrs. H. H. and C. Sanborn and the best man was Richard C. Sanborn, brother of the groom. The bride wore a gown of fine blue satin, princess style, with blue and silver shippers. Her veil was long and caught with a wreath of orange and some. She carried a bouquet of orange and white carnations. Her train and dress was of brown chiffon with gold and blue to match. The matron of honor wore printed silk chiffon of the same color. The groom's suit was of the white. The best man wore a navy blue suit.

Immediately after the ceremony the reception was held and congratulations were received after which refreshments were served and cake was served. The wedding dinner cake was in evidence. One of the fruit cake supporting a tiny bride and groom, standing in the center of the

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Bion E. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bellian, Norman H. Hadden, Lewis Pike, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Hadden, Norway; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pike, Conway, N. H.; Mrs. Clayton Pike, Wendell Pike.

Dr. Wight of Bethel Dead

Dr. I. H. Wight, one of Bethel's physicians, was found dead in his car about 4:15 Wednesday afternoon, near the Riverside cemetery, by Arthur Dudley. The car was stationary and was backed out of the road. The motor was running, but the doctor was slumped over the wheel.

Dudley called Dr. R. R. Tibbets, who upon his arrival pronounced the man dead. Dr. Wight had been in failing health for several years, but seemed to be very much improved of late.

Dr. Wight was born at Milan, N. H., March 28, 1875, the son of L. S. and Philantha Howard Wight and received his education in the public schools of Milan, the Berlin high school, Kent's Hill Seminary, and attended Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn., and graduated from the University of Vermont in 1901. He married Miss Angie L. Pathe of Milan, N. H., who, with one daughter, survives him.

Dr. Wight began the practice of medicine at East Corinth, but came to Bethel in 1902. He held many positions of trust, being president of the Bethel Savings Bank, a trustee of Gould Academy, and a member of the school board. He was a member of Mt. Abram Lodge of F. O. F. A., Sunset Rebekah, Bethel Lodge of F. O. F. A., Eastern Star, Strathgates Commandery, Kora Temple and Congregational church.
